CONFLICTS OF INTEREST / COMPETING INTEREST FORM

TO BE SIGNED BY ALL AUTHORS

Title of the journal: ARAI Journal of Mobility Technology

Title of the submitting article: _____

As an integral part of the online submission process, each manuscript must contain a declaration of interests from ALL authors. Corresponding authors are required to confirm whether they and/or their co-authors have any competing interests to declare, and to provide details of these. The corresponding author is required to complete and upload this Declaration of Competing Interests form when submitting a manuscript to AJMT via our online submissions system. It is the corresponding author's responsibility to ensure that all authors adhere to this policy.

Corresponding Author:

Name:
Full corresponding address:
E-mail and contact No.

AJMT requires all authors to disclose any direct or indirect financial interests or ties, as well as any other situations that may raise concerns about bias in the work presented or the results, implications, or opinions expressed. When deciding whether to declare a competing interest or connection, please use the competing interest test: Is there any arrangement that would embarrass you or any of your co-authors if it came to light after publication and you had not disclosed it?

If the manuscript is published, the declaration of competing interests' information may be included in the published paper. If an author claims that there are no competing interests, a statement to that effect may appear in the published paper.
